CALIFORNIA'S PRINCIPAL ENERGY AGENCIES TO HOLD PRESS BRIEFING ON IMPLEMENTATION OF ENERGY POLICY

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15, 2003 - Members of the California Public Utilities Commission (PUC), the California Energy Commission (CEC), and the California Power Authority (CPA) will hold a press briefing to discuss steps taken to ensure that the state has adequate, reliable, and reasonably priced electrical power and natural gas.

WHO: Michael R. Peevey, President, PUC

William J. Keese, Chair, CEC

S. David Freeman, Chair, CPA

WHEN: Thursday, July 17, 2003, 9 a.m. PDT

WHERE: PUC State Office Building Auditorium, 505 Van Ness Ave., San Francisco

A call-in number is available for members of the media unable to attend in-person: 1-800-288-8975, passcode: 692473.

The participants will discuss achievements made in accordance with the agencies' Energy Action Plan (EAP) since the time of its implementation and what remains to be done to achieve the Plan's goals. In addition, there will be a question-and-answer period (media calling in will also be able to participate).

The press briefing will be followed by an EAP implementation meeting from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. PDT, where members of the three agencies will discuss the issues of ensuring reliable, affordable electricity generation, and ensuring a reliable supply of reasonably priced natural gas. In addition, there will be a public comment period. The listen-only call-in number for the meeting is: 1-877-345-0241, passcode: 92105.

For more information on the EAP, worksheets on the implementation process, and materials given out at the meeting, please visit the PUC's website at www.cpuc.ca.gov.
